

City of Olathe

4th Development Forum

Wednesday, January 23, 2008

8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Olathe City Hall, 100 E. Santa Fe
City Council Chambers

Purpose: The City of Olathe conducts quarterly Development Forums to provide an opportunity for maintaining and improving communication with its development-related customers.

Who is invited to attend: All those involved in development in Olathe – developers, contractors, architects, engineers, and others – are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Major Topics of this Development Forum will include:

- Recent changes to City development codes and processes
- Status of the City's consideration of the adoption of the 2006 International Building Codes and related changes
- Stormwater Management Initiatives: National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES), Phase II
- Tips for improving submittal of building plans to expedite their review
- Updates from City staff on other the recent changes/improvements

To help us estimate the numbers of people who will attend, please contact Sharyn Mueller at: 913-971-8956 or smueller@olatheks.org if you plan to attend.
